*Please continue to check email messages and our newsletter for further details about this meet up. Note: our meet up will most likely take place in a reserved hotel location (restaurant or meeting room). As much as it is our style to graciously host, at this time we unfortunately do not have a budget to cover registration, accommodations or hosting. Donations are welcomed. Dr. Scott will later provide information on when she will be available to meet with people on an individual basis. Contact us at: info@iget-network.org or visit our website: <http://www/iget-network.org>.
